NAME: _____ COMPANY: _____

ATTENTION:

The Agribusiness Association of Iowa (AAI) is currently seeking nominations for our upcoming Board of Directors elections. AAI's Board of Directors serve a vital role in shaping the policy of the association on behalf of the membership. Elected directors serve a term of three years, and are eligible to serve three consecutive terms.

Terms are effective October 1, 2023, and new board members will be invited to attend the September Board meeting. Official AAI election ballots will be mailed out to voting members after nominations are finalized. If you are a voting member, please watch your mail box for the official AAI ballot.

The seats below are seeking nominees. Please read through each position description and provide the requested information for your nominee(s) in the designated area. All AAI members are eligible to nominate a fellow AAI member or themselves.

Elected Directors serve as full voting members and shall have supervision, control, and direction of the affairs of the Association, shall determine its policies or changes therein within the limits of the Bylaws, shall actively prosecute its purposes, and shall have discretion in the disbursement of its funds. It may adopt rules and regulations for the conduct of its business as shall be deemed advisable and may, in the execution of the powers granted, appoint such agents as it may consider necessary.

District 4 Director—Director should take special interest in representing the AAI members in their district (see map), as well as the general AAI membership.

Grain Director—Director should take special interest in representing the grain industry as well as the general AAI membership. The Grain Director also serves as Chair of AAI's Grain Committee which meets as needed depending on issues facing the industry. Agendas for committee meetings are prepared with the assistance of the Committee Vice Chair and AAI staff.

At-Large Director—Director represents general AAI membership.
